with respect to:

The commissioned attorney shall be given the general power of attorney with the right to substitution to represent his client in this case before all cantonal, extra-cantonal, federal and international courts and administrative authorities as well as against private persons and to carry out all legal proceedings duly required. In particular, he is authorized to institute or withdraw all types of legal proceedings and remedies, to carry out all the procedures and processes required by debt enforcement and bankruptcy law, to arrange and instruct arbitrators, to register deeds, to dispose of the dispute, to accept settlements, to file criminal charges, to receive and issue monies and other assets, to accept all summons and deliveries, and to undertake all acts for which cantonal or federal laws require special authority.

The client releases banks, physicians and their assistants from safeguarding their professional secrecy.

The client shall undertake in all cases to pay the fee and the cash expenses of the attorney. If no fee agreement has been concluded, the fee shall be determined in accordance with the Honorary Rules for lawyers of the canton responsible for the case. The attorney has a right of lien on the objects, claims and other rights to which the client is entitled, to secure his claims. Any process compensation shall be paid to the agent for payment. In case of a dispute, the professional secrecy against the judicial authorities is revoked.

The attorney is authorized to destroy the original files which have been handed over to him and which have not been reclaimed, at the end of 10 years from the final resolution of the case or 10 years after invoicing in the case of extrajudicial decisions.

The client acknowledges that Swiss law is applicable for the execution of disputes arising from this contract and that the District Court of Rheintal is competent.
